

TRIBAL COUNCIL (“TC”) EXHIBITS FOR HEARING ON THE AMENDED NOTICE OF CHARGES OF NEGLIGENCE OF DUTY AND/OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT BY THE TRIBAL CHAIR

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Tribal Council (“TC”) Exhibit Number	Description of Exhibit	Page(s)
1a	Minutes of Tribal Council Executive Meeting, Thursday, May 22, 2014 (excerpt) – describing G. Lafferty’s meeting with the Washington Redskins Original Americans Foundation (“WROAF”) Chief Executive Officer, Gary Edwards, his offer to G. Lafferty, her family, and any member of the Tribal Council to “set you up” if they are ever in Washington, D.C., during football season, and her request for, and receipt of, a football signed by Redskins quarterback “RG3”	1–2
1b	G. Lafferty’s Monthly Report May 2014 (presented during June 1, 2014 regular Tribal Council meeting) – describing her May 6, 2014, meeting with WROAF.	3
1	Includes various documents showing that G. Lafferty considered the trip to DC for the Redskins game to be official travel: 1) PITU Check No. 107725 to G. Lafferty, dated September 18, 2014, for $284.00 for “Meals 9/24–9/27/2014 Washington, DC”; 2) Travel Expenses form for meals ($71.00 per day), showing “Room paid”, and 3) check as endorsed by G. Lafferty on September 23, 2014.	4–6
2	Credit card statement showing that G. Lafferty used her Tribal credit card to pay for “excess baggage” charges (x 5) for herself, and her husband, Charles Lafferty, and charged parking at SLC International airport for the trip to Washington, D.C., 9/24–9/27/2014.	7–8
3	Photograph of G. Lafferty standing on the football field with Bruce Allen, President of the Washington Redskins, and G. Lafferty’s husband, Charles Lafferty, at the September 25, 2014, Redskins game.	9
4	Photograph of G. Lafferty and her husband Charles Lafferty at the September 25, 2014, Redskins game.	10
5	Photograph of members of G. Lafferty’s immediate family at the September 25, 2014, Redskins game.	11

Tribal Council (“TC”) Exhibit Number	Description of Exhibit	Page(s)
6	Photograph of members of G. Lafferty’s immediate family at the September 25, 2014, Redskins game.	12
7	Facebook post dated September 29, 2014, documenting G. Lafferty’s attendance at the September 25, 2014, Redskins game.	13
8	Sports Memorabilia sites valuing Robert Griffin III (“RG3”) autographed footballs at between $64.49 (lowest value) to $1,479.99 (highest value)	14–17
9	TiqIQ blog showing average prices for NFL tickets by team for the 2014 football season. Initial Average Ticket Price for Washington Redskins Ticket: $304.19.	18–22
10	Sample airfare from SLC-IAD (Dulles), roundtrip, at $654.20.	23
11	News articles regarding controversy over Redskins/WROAF’s use of gifts, including game tickets, winter coats, shoes, a backhoe, etc., to buy “good will” for continued use of Redskins name and perception that such gifts represent “bribe money”, an attempt to “buy off opposition”, and “a sleazy effort to win over a racial group.”	24–55
12	Paiute Indian Tribe of Utah Conflict of Interest Training, presented to Tribal Council, including G. Lafferty, on September 16, 2014. Training included a slide on “Gift Restrictions” that stated “Taking any gift given in exchange for your official action or because of your official position could be considered bribery.” Another slide showed “Examples of Gifts You Should Avoid as a Council Member” and expressly included “Meals”, “Entertainment”, “Event Tickets” and “Travel/Accommodation Expenses.”	56 – 98
13	Facebook posts by G. Lafferty on HTR4LIFE.COM (Hail To The Redskins) and as a comment to post “Washington Redskins trademark cancelled; Patent Office says name is disparaging”	99–103
14	Trial Exhibit list of Plaintiff, Pro-Football, Inc. in Pro-Football, Inc. v. Blackhorse, et al. , Case No. 1:14-cv-01043 (E.D. Va.) regarding continued use of Redskins name and logo, showing examples of how Pro-Football, Inc. is using modern-day letters and emails from Tribal members in support of the name Redskins in the current litigation.	104–105

Tribal Council (“TC”) Exhibit Number	Description of Exhibit	Page(s)
15	G. Lafferty’s June 2014 Report – expressing disappointment in the Indian Peaks Restoration Pageant and that Indian Peaks “didn’t put too much thought into the Pageant.”	106–107
16	Letter from Indian Peaks Band of Paiutes to G. Lafferty, dated August 1, 2014 – requesting apology for comments made about Restoration Pageant and stating that if Chairwoman did not issue an apology, the Indian Peaks Band would “no longer [be] supporting the 35 th Annual Restoration Gathering and Pow-Wow.”	108
17	Utah Paiute Tribal Council Minutes of Regular Meeting, August 1, 2014 (excerpt) – Tribal Council motion to require Chairwoman to apologize to Indian Peaks Band (motion passed with all members present voting ‘yea’).	109–110
18	Notes of the Indian Peaks Band Chairwoman regarding comments made by G. Lafferty about Indian Peaks Restoration Pageant	111
19	Utah Paiute Tribal Council Minutes of Regular Meeting, September 4, 2014 (excerpt) – reiterating need for G. Lafferty to follow Tribal Council directive or face reprimand	112–113
20	Letter to the Paiute Indian Tribe of Utah Tribal Council from the Family of the Late Geneal Anderson, dated June 20, 2013 – requesting written apology from G. Lafferty because she “plagiarized a pervious [sic] chair without consent from the family [of Geneal Anderson] or [Indian Peaks] band.” Exhibit also includes copies of the original welcome letter written by General Anderson and the (identical) letter signed by G. Lafferty.	114–116
21	Utah Paiute Tribal Council Minutes of Regular Meeting, May 1, 2014 (excerpt) – Merlene Whitehair presentation to Tribal Council regarding complaint against Cedar Band Chairwoman. The minutes reflect the Tribal Council’s decision that the “Tribal Council isn’t authorized to make decisions over the bands” and that the “Tribal Council is not authorized to hear this debate. And Merlene is not given authority by the tribal council to move forward with this. It is at the discretion of the Cedar Band members.”	117–118
22	Email from G. Lafferty to Cedar Band Attorney, M. Echohawk, dated January 7, 2015, directing Mr. Echohawk how she wanted the Cedar Band matter to be taken care of.	119

Tribal Council (“TC”) Exhibit Number	Description of Exhibit	Page(s)
23	Affidavit of Francine M. Jaramillo regarding telephone call made by G. Lafferty, in which G. Lafferty “identified herself as the Chairwoman of the Paiute Tribe” and questioned the ability and professional qualifications of a PITU tribal member who worked with Ms. Jaramillo.	120–121
24	Cease and Desist letter from N. Borchardt Campbell to G. Lafferty, dated March 1, 2015	122–123
25	Flyer from Webinar: “Expungement and Indian Country: The Need to Address Past Criminal Histories for a Better Future”	124
26	Letter from N. Borchardt to the Paiute Indian Tribe of Utah regarding Utah Governor’s Native American Summit, dated June 30, 2013	125–126
27	Email from J. Barrow regarding minutes from Native American Summit (“NAS”) planning committee meeting, dated July 2, 2013, stating that a “recommendation was made by chairwoman Gari Lafferty to not have Nikki Borchardt as a keynote speaker.”	127–128
28	[REDACTED – not used during hearing]	N/A
29	[REDACTED – not used during hearing]	N/A
30	Minutes from Tribal Council Only Meeting, June 26, 2014, regarding duties and restrictions of Tribal Chair	129–133
Rebuttal exhibit	Email from D. Webb, Director of Operations, Washington Redskins Original Americans Foundation, to the Tribe’s Economic Development Director, stating that “after Chairwoman Lafferty met with the Executive Director of WROAF in Washington, DC this week, [WROAF] is adding 2 additional vans to your request[.]”	134